State Parks Day at the Capitol, Feb. 12

Thursday, Feb. 12, is State Parks Day at the North Dakota Capitol and the North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department (NDPRD) will take over Legislative hall from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. offering legislators and visitors a look at what the NDPRD offers.

NDPRD personnel will be on hand to answer questions and provide information about the department and the opportunities it provides. Also participating in Parks Day are state park support groups and the North Dakota Recreation and Parks Association. The North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

North Dakota State Park annual vehicle passes will be on sale and the NDPRD mascot “Roscoe” the Raccoon will be available for pictures. State Parks Day at the Capitol, held during the 2011 and 2013 legislative sessions, were great successes as several hundred people made their way through the exhibits talking to NDPRD staff.

For more information contact the North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department at (701) 328-5357 or on the web at www.parkrec.nd.gov.
